HOLSTON EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

MARCH 16-17, 2012

COKESBURY UMC
KNOXVILLE, TN

Sponsored by The Holston Conference of the United Methodist Church Witness Ministry Team

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP

Pastor Dave Hood serves as Campus Pastor of Fort McKinley UMC, Ginghamburg UMC's urban campus in Dayton, OH. Fort McKinley was a dying church of about 40 faithful servants when Ginghamburg merged with them in 2008 to revitalize the church and community. Today, Fort McKinley has over 400 in worship on Sundays and is making a huge impact in the community. Dave (who began his ministry as a rural pastor "in the cornfields of Ohio") holds an unwavering belief "that if God has offered us the unlimited power of the Holy Spirit, the life example of Jesus himself, and the full resources of heaven, then we have no reason for failure."

Rusty Eshleman serves as Worship and Music Leader at Fort McKinley and also coordinates their community ministries and outreach. Through Project Neighborhood and their breakfast ministry, they have very intentionally reached out into the 15-block area they have defined as their primary mission field. The result has been to radically transform the community.

Come and hear this great story that can happen in our neighborhoods and mission fields, too.

We are wonderfully blessed to have Bishop James E. Swanson, Sr. lead our closing service of worship. Now in his eighth year as our episcopal leader, Bishop Swanson has led the people of Holston with a powerful witness, a servant's heart, and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

We extend our deep gratitude to the Ooltewah UMC Praise Band, Rusty Eshleman, Paul Jones, and others for leading our music and worship. Also, we are grateful to Cokesbury UMC for hosting the event.
